DOC K-9 and partner help Annapolis police in drug operation

A Maryland Division of Correction K-9 and his partner based in Hagerstown helped the Annapolis Police Department locate drugs during a special operation this week, according to a Division of Correction press release.

Marijuana and cocaine were recovered Wednesday in the Woodside, Clay Street and Bentz Street apartment complexes in Annapolis, DOC spokesman Mark Vernarelli said.

The Division of Correction K-9 units included Sgt. Dennis Dieterle and his partner, Shelton, of Hagerstown, as well as officers and their partners from the Jessup region, Vernarelli said.

The K-9 units recovered 39 grams of suspected marijuana, seven grams of suspected crack cocaine and 60 "rocks" or about nine grams of suspected crack cocaine, Vernarelli said.

The operation was supervised by the Annapolis Police Department and also included the Anne Arundel County Sheriff's Office, Vernarelli said.
